SUMMER
2026

No Place Like ASCCA

Our 50th summer is finally here! We've spent the entire year preparing to welcome our campers back for what is sure to be an unforgettable summer.

The 2026 program staff arrived on May 26 and began their training. Their week of orientation covered policies and procedures, hands-on training, and so much more. Our goal is to ensure that each team member feels confident, informed, and ready to provide the best experience for our campers. From aquatics activities to adventure and the demo farm, we are confident that our program staff are fully prepared for whatever may come their way. They've already begun running programs for the Camp Seale Harris campers.

On June 9, we will welcome the rest of our staff, including counselors, PR interns, nurses, and med passers. Their week-long orientation will include everything from the history of Camp ASCCA, policies and procedures, how to properly transfer, feeding techniques, program rotations, teambuilding activities, and much more!

Our staff is eager to meet all of our incredible campers, and we're counting down the days until Session 1. Our excitement is contagious!

This summer, we'll welcome new and familiar faces, host incredible concerts, make memories that last a lifetime, and wish there was more time in each day.

We can't wait to see what is in store for our 50th summer! It's a joy to have so much to look forward to.

Camp ASCCA had the privilege of hosting the annual Hall Foundation event from May 18–21. This special week brought together participants from the Dothan and Muscle Shoals Therapeutic Recreation Centers, students from the University of North Alabama, and various Camp ASCCA staff members. Thank you Alabama Elks Association!

Camp ASCCA's Director of Development, Dana, and Social Media & Marketing Specialist, Elise, recently attended the Alabama Elks Association's 104th Annual Convention, held on June 6th in Decatur, AL.

During the event, the Alabama Elks Trust officers, presented Camp ASCCA with a generous 2026 gift of $50,000 to support capital projects.

The Alabama Elks Association has supported Camp ASCCA for countless years. No matter the need, the Elks are always among the first to show up and lend a helping hand. We are deeply grateful for their unwavering support. It's because of dedicated organizations like the Elks that Camp ASCCA has had the privilege of serving individuals with disabilities for 50 years.

Elise shared exciting updates about Camp ASCCA with the attendees and encouraged everyone to join us for Elks Day at Camp ASCCA on July 18th and for our 50th anniversary celebration on August 1st.

We are incredibly grateful to the entire Alabama Elks Association for their continued support and long-standing dedication.

$50 to celebrate 50 years of Camp ASCCA!
